POST 385 – A Memorial Dedicated to

Nathan B. Bruckenthal

Age: 24

Branch/rank: Coast Guard - Petty Officer

City: Dania Beach, FL

Died: April 24, 2004

Bio: The New York-born father-to-be was a member of the Law Enforcement Team South at Opa-Locka Airport. Besides praising his qualities as a Coast Guard petty officer, his friends described him as an adventurer who had bought a mountain bike and a prankster who loved to play jokes. He was killed by a suicide bomber in a boat near Mahama Bahrán.

Adam Leigh Cann

Age: 23

Branch/rank: Marine - Sergeant

City: Davie, FL

Died: Jan. 5, 2006

Bio: Quick with a joke, always laughing - the South Plantation High School grad could draw a crowd of friends. Cann, who served with a K-9 security unit, was on his second tour in Iraq, after having served a tour of duty in Afghanistan. He was killed when he approached a suicide bomber at a police recruiting center in Ar Ramadi. The Legislature renamed Miami's Department of Transportation headquarters in honor of his heroism.
