PROGRAM:

We are very fortunate to secure the multi-talented speaker, Mrs. Marguerite Van Etten, whose subject for our luncheon will be " Opening The Doors Thru Genealogy." This lady is in Who's Who of American Women, is a registered Dietician, is a life member NSDAR - member of various Genealogical Societies and has her hand in a dozen or so other interests and societies. So gentlemen, treat your WOSAR's - wives and women of SAR's - for a very interesting luncheon.

Last month we had a switch of speakers at the last minute and the young lady that was going to compete for The Douglas G. High Oration Contest came down with the flu and the young man, Mark Engelberg who had been sick recovered in time to give his speech. The judges overwhelmingly graded him highly and Mark is to represent our chapter at the state competition April 30th in Cocoa Beach at the 93rd Annual FLSAR Meeting.

Now speaking of The Annual Meeting in Cocoa Beach, this is an all members meeting. Let's have a good turn-out from Ft. Lauderdale. If you have not received a mailing from the Florida Patriot and need information - call us (Stu Browne, 564-0308 - Ed Sullivan, 564-1014 - Ed Frisinger, 943-9318 or Harry Young, 581-4506) for details.

Our special guests will be the recipients of our Bronze ROTC Medal and Certificates in recognition of outstanding leadership qualities. Both from Northeast High School AFJROTC cadets Kevin Croyle and Ann Merinda Scott will be accompanied by R.A. Rung, ASAF (Ret.).

We look forward to seeing you on April 14th. Bring a guest and get your reservations IN EARLY -
