PROGRAM : Guest Speaker will be Pamela Euston, Director of Education,
Fort Lauderdale Historical Society

Some will recall that two years ago Ms. Euston gave us a comprehensive and entertaining presentation on the 2nd Seminole War, complete with an 'authentic' Seminole and soldier in traditional dress of that era (compliments of the 'Sunshine State Reenactors'). Her topic this time will acquaint us with local Civil War activities and some of the well known participants who were present. -- Although I don't anticipate there will be a shrieking warrior rushing into the room this time, you never know !!

NEWS :

+ At the last meeting, twelve contestants in the Joseph S. Rumbaugh Oration Contest treated us to their patriotic presentations. Congratulations go to all, and especially to the winner, Donna Sue LaRene a senior at Hollywood Hills High School. Compatriot Sam Freas, Chairman of the contest this year, is to be commended for his innovative and enthusiastic direction of this project, which resulted in the largest number of participating schools and students we have had to date. -- We now need a volunteer to continue and maintain this momentum for next year's contest. Who will be the first to give me a call ?

+ We wish to acknowledge and thank the following compatriots who donated to the Chapter's Trust Fund when making their recent dues payment:

Stuart Browne	Oscar Kraehenbuehl
Clifton Cox	George Lazear
Wallace Davis	Andrew Lewis
Edward Frisinger	Allen Moore
David Haley	Dumond St. Martin

These contributions will help build this fund into a useful source of extra income which will enable the Chapter to undertake more projects and/or defray likely increases in operating costs in future years. Contributions of any size are gratefully accepted at any time.

+ Those who planned to participate in the NSSAR Life Membership program will be sorry to learn the price has just gone up. We were notified by the FLSSAR Secretary that effective March 3, 1994, the plan was changed to require a $500 fee per member, regardless of age. We were unaware this was in the works and have no further information. Should you still wish to join, please submit your request through the Chapter Secretary.
