PROGRAM: Ms. Jane Podurski, Director of Business and Operations for the New Performing Arts Center of Ft. Lauderdale, will present highlights of the Arts and Entertainment Center with a slide presentation.

A NOTE OF SADNESS: Our beloved Chaplain/Historian, Wilbur R Casey, passed away Saturday, January 16, 1988. We express our deepest sympathy to Leah and family members.

February is the month we celebrate the birthdates of two of our greatest Presidents, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

There will be a special presentation made at this luncheon, please don't miss it.
Bring your wife, friend or a prospective member.

We had a great turnout for our first luncheon of '88 - hope to see you all back again, plus more - We had a good speaker, Mr Gary M Farmer, P.A., who spoke on The Preservation of Our Constitutional Rights and Law and The Rights of Citizens to Trial by Jury.

We initiated our newest member, Compatriot Wilmer Thomson and welcomed him to our Society with his Certificate of Membership and his Rosette.

Mr Barry Bridges has accepted the appointment to the office of Registrar/Genealogist and all the questions and referrals regarding membership applications should be directed to him henceforth. His telephone # 764-7583
