DECEMBER MEETING

The December meeting was held on Monday the 17th in the restaurant of The Point Of Americas condominium at 2100 S. Ocean Lane Ft. Lauderdale. It was attended by forty-six, twenty compatriots with sixteen spouses and ten guests. Following a 7:00 to 8:00 P.M. social hour with cocktails the dinner started with President Admiral John T Wulff calling for the pledges of allegiance and the invocation by acting chaplain Lawrence P. Klein.

After the dinner President Wulff introduced the President of the Florida Society, Richard E. Friberg who spoke briefly on the Objects of the S.A.R. and then installed the officers of the Ft. Lauderdale Chapter for 1095, who are;

President;	Roswell C. Van Sickle
1st Vice President;	Allen G. Heintzelman
2nd Vice President;	C. Edward Frisinger
Treasurer/Secretary;	Harry L. Young Jr.
Genealogist;	Thomas E. Davis
Chaplain;	Wilbur Randolph Casey
Chancellor;	Robert Earle Dooley

All were present except Wilbur Casey who was unavoidably prevented from attending by other obligations.

The incoming president was presented with the gavel to signify the transfer of the office. President Wulff then announced that he and Mrs Wulff were presenting a gift to the incoming president. It was an S.A.R. combination set consisting of the official badge, the miniature badge and the neck ribbon. It was thankfully received and will be proudly worn.

The new president thanked the members for the honor bestowed by his election and installation. He said he realized that with the honor went the responsibilities and duties of the office and that the duties, not to be taken lightly, were given in five paragraphs of the Chapter By-Laws. He promised to use the stated objects of the S.A.R. as a guide for directing the time, energy and resources of the Chapter.

Those who had contributed to the planning and preparation of the cocktail party and dinner were thanked.

The meeting was closed by the acting chaplain Lawrence P. Klein who led us in the recessional.

A NEW ROSTER

Numerous changes in our roster have occurred since it was printed in 1982, changes in membership, addresses and phone numbers. It is being brought up to date by Adm. John Wulff with the cooperation of Harry Young Jr. The first results are the new address labels used for the first time for the mailing of this news letter. Please check your address label carefully and if it contains an error, please notify Adm. Wulff 989-0263 or R.C. Van Sickle 525-5967 so that it can be corrected before the roster is printed for distribution.
