PROGRAM: We are looking forward in having Mrs. Laura Ward, Assistant to the City Manager, as our speaker for this coming luncheon meeting. We are pleased that she is taking time out from her busy schedule to speak to us on "Developing the Historic District."

Again we want to thank Detective Sergeant John Calabro for giving us insight on white collar crime at last month's meeting. His guest was Detective Montagano.

We also were honored to have as our guests the young lady and gentleman from Fort Lauderdale High School who were our latest recipients of our Bronze ROTC Medal and Certificate at the May 6 Awards Night. Congratulations again to Cadet Nicole M. Preziose and Cadet Larry Tonna, who were accompanied by Capt. Clinkscales.

Compatriot Dennis Gilbertson flew in from Boston to join his brother Steven for our luncheon. Our other "brothers" team showing up regularly this year are compatriots Rick and Bill Aiken. Thanks for the good showing.

Our own newly re-elected S. E. Regional Vice President, Harry L. Young, Jr., spoke to the group about the happenings at the recent 92nd annual FLSAR meeting in Cocoa Beach, April 29 - May 1. I would like to add that it was a very rewarding and inspirational weekend. The Douglas G. High oration contest was wonderful. Our representative contestant, Mark Ellenberg, did us honors. All the speakers were excellent and hopefully we can inspire more high school students to participate next school year. There were 176 SAR members and guests who attended the Awards luncheon. It was a compact three days but well worth it and I'm sure lots of you who could afford the time would certainly benefit from the experience, so keep it in mind for the next Annual Meeting. These meetings are open to all SAR members - not just officers only!

Mr. Bill Brown, a new applicant, attended our luncheon. Word is Barry Bridges, our Chapter Registrar/Genealogist will be in attendance for the coming luncheon and any of you applicants who would like to turn in your applications or review your worksheets, Barry will work with you.

Compatriots Joe Rumbaugh and Matt Sellers were each presented with a certificate of recognition as a FLSAR Past President in appreciation for not only past participation but for continued support of SAR as well. Congratulations!

Enough for now. Hope to see a big turn-out for luncheon, June 9. Mark it on your calendar now and phone in your reservations early.
