Fort Lauderdale Chapter chartered December 8, 1966

Volume 43 Number 8

President's Message

Dear Compatriots,

Back in the 1963 when I was 6 years old, my great grandmother wrote me a most interesting letter. The content of the letter was way over my head at the time but she knew my parents would save the letter and give it to me later in life. I'm mentioning this because it's an example of how we as a society have changed over the last century or so.

My great grandmother was in her 90's when she wrote this letter to me. She was born in 1869, was in the DAR, a past regent, started a CAR chapter, was involved in politics, loved genealogy, spoke publicly on historic subjects, and was generally, a pillar of the community. She was also a storyteller who, according to my father and uncle, could captivate children with her tales of the old days. But her tales always had a message hidden in there somewhere. A tale of moral guidance, proper behavior and values.

She took the time to write this letter to me in 1963 knowing full well that I wouldn't benefit from it until many year after she was gone. The subject was simple, it was about "usefulness". She said she had a dream about me and consequently felt the urge had to write to me which she did immediately upon awakening. She expressed her belief that I would grow up to be very "useful", and she was quite excited about the prospect.

What a wonderful yet simple message. And what a terrific example of how people thought before our modern age. These people didn't aspire for riches or fame, they simply wanted to be useful. It didn't matter if you were a lowly farmhand, a merchant, a minister or a mate on a whaling ship. You were expected to work hard and be useful, and in so doing, you could hold your head high. You were held in high regard. You were accepted and admired. You belonged. A while ago I read an old newspaper article from the 1880's. Seems in a certain part of a certain town there were some unsavory individuals. The newspaper came right out and called them "useless characters". It was a supreme slap in the face. It would be hard to find a more devastating insult. And people in that part of town would be embarrassed to have their neighborhood infected with such people.

Today of course, we live in a different world. Today usefulness, as my great grandmother knew it, is all but forgotten. Today, rather than saying goodbye, people often say, "Take it easy" which might very well be the slogan of our times. Wasn't too long ago that comment would have been scorned and ridiculed as contrary to everyone's teachings.

My great grandmother died two years after writing that letter to me. My parents didn't give me the letter until I was 30. I think I'll read it to my three kids this Thanksgiving. I think that will be useful.

Respectfully,

Charlie Crowell

Jim Lohmyer called for any discussion of old business. There being none, the meeting proceeded to the discussion of new business.

- Joe Motes, noting the small turn out questioned the efficacy of the printed news letter. He also stated that it was his intent to start notifying members, electronically, well in advance of meetings and without waiting for the printed news letter to be complete.

- Ed Spence, former Chapter member and now Sumter Chapter member asked that notification of a planned event, Veterans Appreciation Week, and in which his Chapter was participating, and in which his Chapter was participating, be included as a news item in our news letter. He is to send the details to Joe Motes.

Following lunch the discussion of new business continued.

- There was a general discussion of the desirability of a more structured type of meeting with presentations of interest to the members. Part of the discussion centered around the possibility of delegating responsibility for programs to a Program Chairman. No action was taken on this as it seemed to be the consensus that this was a part of the responsibility of the Chapter President assisted, as required, by the Vice President to plan meetings.

- There was discussion of projects or other undertakings that the Chapter could do to create an atmosphere of belonging and assistance to the community. Joe Motes indicated that the VA Clinic in Fort Lauderdale was in need of donated books and current magazines. He stated that magazines would have to be no more than 2-3 weeks old, but both paper and hard back books would be welcome. If members bring these to meetings he will see that they get delivered. Jim Lohmyer suggested that we get the Toys-For Tots donations started. Jack Dye suggested that members could be asked to make presentations on historical incidents, such as Revolutionary War battles or campaigns. Joe Motes also announced the program he had set up for the November meeting, details of which will be in the news letter.

- Jim Lohmyer led a discussion of a slate of officers for the coming year to be presented and voted on at the November meeting and the following names will be submitted for consideration:
